FARM PLACE FOR CRIMINALS

Gov. Harris Believes They Can More Readily Be Reformed There.

Columbus, O., Dec. 29.—Gov. Harris believes farming is the ideal life for crime and insanity. The farmer would like to see prisoners transferred from the penitentiary to the reformatory at Mansfield and the penitentiary prisoners who are not confirmed criminals employed on a state farm convenient to this city. Most of the state's manufacturing of supplies would then be done in the penitentiary by the dangerous prisoners.

"It is the conditions in our cities that breed crime," said the governor. "Most of it can be traced to idleness and drink, and idleness is frequently the cause of drink. There is little drink in the country and practically no idleness. Enjoyment, health, independence and manhood are found on the farm. If the young man who has slipped over the bounds of law is taught scientific farming, he would come to like it and escape the associates who carry him down when he returns to the city."

"If we were building a new penitentiary I would not select the present site. We have it, and to build entirely new would mean a big expense. The industrial portion of the penitentiary would have to be located convenient to a railroad to be accessible for getting supplies in and finished articles out. The location we have does that. It can be modernized and with the population reduced, should be serviceable."

WILL SEND TWO MESSAGES.

One on Making State Appropriation and One on Prison Labor.

Columbus, O., Dec. 29.—Gov. A. L. Harris has decided to send not one, but two messages to the 28th general assembly of Ohio, immediately after it convenes in extraordinary session, at 10 o'clock next Monday morning, pursuant to his call. Originally it was his intention to appropriate all that he has to transmit to the legislature in one message, but he has changed his mind about this. He will send one message calling attention to the necessity of making appropriations for the various state departments and state institutions for the ensuing year, and of the vacancy in the office of United States senator that must be filled.

In a separate message he will give a synopsis of the investigation of the bipartisan legislative committee as to the solution of the penitentiary problem arising from the operation of the Wertz law prohibiting the making of contract goods at the penitentiary, the effect of which will be to throw the prisoners out of employment. In this message Gov. Harris will urge action to be taken to meet this pending situation.

Child Labor Law Violations.

Columbus, O., Dec. 29.—The first case brought by State Shop Inspector Morgan under the provision of the law against child labor forbidding employers from withholding wages of minors is against the Edward Wren Co. of Springfield. It is charged that the company retained the wages of a girl because she was short in her cash receipts. She demanded her money and the company refused to pay it. There are five similar cases against other Springfield merchants to be tried at the same time. Inspector Morgan has been advised that it is the intention of the Cleveland employer found guilty of violating the law against the employment of minors to contest the constitutionality of the act.

Stricken Blind in Pulpit.

Springfield, O., Dec. 29.—Rev. Wilbur L. Y. Davis, pastor of the High Street Methodist church, and one of the most prominent divines in this city, while preaching from his pulpit Monday morning, was stricken almost entirely blind, and was removed to the hospital. He had just reached the climax of his talk, which was given before all the Masonic lodges of the city, when everything was lost in a red haze. With rare presence of mind he concluded his remarks and left the platform.

Half Wet, Half Dry.

Salem, O.—The north side of the main street in the village of Washingtonville, three miles east of here, is in Mahoning county which is "wet" territory and four saloons are already located there with a fifth to be opened on January 1 by Youngstown parties. The fact that the Erie station, where the booze is unloaded, is in dry territory is being made the basis of an investigation by the county civic league.

Former Bank Cashier in Court.

Columbus, O.—Alleging that he has no property, real or personal, Stanley Smith, former cashier of the National Bank of Blanchester, O., which failed in February, 1907, now secretary of the association rushed to his aid, but the dying man was uncooperative, unable to give his name or a reason for his act. In one of the letters there was a line reading: "I'm sorry that I have to do this." Colbig, who was 40 years old, was unusually well dressed. His home was in Columbus.

Do You Open Your Mouth

Like a young bird and gulp down whatever food or medicine may be offered you? Or, do you want to know something of the composition and character of that which you take into your stomach whether as food or medicine?

Most intelligent and sensible people now-a-days insist on knowing what they employ whether as food or as medicine. Dr. Pierce believes they have a perfect right to insist upon such knowledge. So he publishes, broadcast and on each bottle of his medicines are made and are made in such a way that he can well afford to do because the more the ingredients of which his medicines are made are studied and understood the more will their superior curative virtues be appreciated.

For the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses, irregularities and derangements, giving rise to frequent headaches, backache, dragging-down pain or distress in lower abdominal or pelvic region, accompanied, oftentimes, with a debilitating, pelvic, catarrhal drain and kindred symptoms of weakness, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a most efficient remedy. It is equally effective in curing painful periods, in giving strength to nursing mothers and in preparing the system of the expectant mother for baby's coming, thus rendering childbirth safe and comparatively painless. The "Favorite Prescription" is a most potent, strengthening tonic to the generally system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. It is also a soothing and invigorating nerve and cures nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, chorea or St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing nervous symptoms attendant upon functional and organic diseases of the distinctly feminine organs.

A host of medical authorities of all the several schools of practice, recommend each of the several ingredients of which "Favorite Prescription" is made for the cure of the diseases for which it is claimed to be a cure. You may read what they say for yourself by sending a postal card request for a free booklet of extracts from the leading authorities, to Doctor Pierce's Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and it will come to you by return post.

Seven Reasons For Safety—Fourth Reason

The safest security for a loan is one that does not depreciate in value and at the same time can be turned into cash should occasion require it.

The financial depression of the past year like financial depressions of longer periods has proved that Youngstown real estate never depreciates in value, and, in addition to this, it has always found a ready sale. These two reasons make a loan based on a conservative value of Youngstown real estate as safe as Old Mother Earth herself.

Eyes and Their Relation to Health

If you had been told a few years ago that eye strain was the cause of not only eye trouble, but Epilepsy, St. Vitus' Dance, Vertigo, Nausea, so-called Valvular Heart Disease, Spinal Curvature, Headache, Hysteria, apparently stupid children, incorrigible children and adults, Insomnia, Inward Memory, Stomach, Liver and Kidney Troubles, all obscure Nervous Affections, as well as troubles peculiar to women, you would have thought it ridiculous. If you had been told that relief and permanent cure could be effected by properly fitted glasses, together with instructions as to diet, habits, etc., and without the use of drugs you would have declared it impossible. Many people do not believe it yet, but that of course does not alter the fact that such is actually the case. Facts are stubborn things and are in no wise affected by our attitude toward them. It is always wise to investigate before condemning, and I can prove every assertion made.
